

AMERICAN CHESS TEAM WINS

CLOSE FINISH IN CABLE MATCH —SCORE OF 5-3 TO 4-2.British Champion Blackburne Falls in Daring Attack, and Barry Forces Him to Resign—Marshall, Voigt and Helms the Other Winners for America.The American players in this year's cable match with Great Britain won again, their retaining the valuable trophy given by his George Newman. Considering that they started yesterday's play with a clear lead of two games, the match was won by the close score of 5½ games to 4½.The Britishers began to recover ground by the victory of Bellingham over Hynes.
The former intercollegiate champion missed a draw at the very last moment. A draw was agreed upon between Hynes and Mills which was entirely warranted by the position.The American team, however, made up for the loss by Barry's victory over Blackburne after a very stout struggle. The English champion had entered into a tremendous combination, abandoning two after pawns, solely bent upon his onslaught against the hostile king. Barry, however, frustrated the attack and Blackburne, after losing a piece, had to surrender.The next victory was registered in favor of the Britishers, who won on the seventh board.
Newman had a bishop to the good, but Michell had four pawns; nevertheless Newman might have drawn, but he was forced to resign by shifting round his king, thus enabling the Britisher to queen a pawn.Meanwhile Helms on the tenth board had made great strides toward improving his position and in a very active manner forced the issue. This victory insured the American team against losing the match, the score being then 5 to 3 in its favor. On the ninth board the Englishman (Hynes) won a draw by a clever combination and never relaxed in maintaining his advantage.The game between Delmar and Jacobs had arrived at a drawing position and the last twenty moves on both sides were made for the sole purpose of keeping the draw in hand.After the fifteenth move Delmar proposed a draw, which the Britishers accepted, provided that Hynes would resign his game.
This gave the match to America by the score of 5½ to 4½.At the close of the match the following cablegrams were exchanged:
Chess Club, Brooklyn:
Suggest draw on board 8, and win for Guntion on board 7.To this the Brooklyn Chess Club replied, agreeing to the proposition.
Chess Club, Brooklyn:
Congratulations on your grand win.Russell, Chess Club, London: Many thanks. Hobbies have just given you three heavy cheers. BLOOMING CHURCH CLUB.
Pillsbury and Marshall called their congratulations to which the Chairman of the Brooklyn Chess Club Match Committee replied with hearty thanks.Hobby, Chess Club, London: Many thanks for your services.
The final score:
